FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEWELRY ART BY AMELIA LAUNCHES NATIONAL "RING OF HOPE" CAMPAIGN TO RAISE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS

(August 17, 2010—Pittsburgh, PA) On Tuesday, August 17, 2010 from 11a.m. until 6 p.m., Bistro To Go will host the "Ring of Hope" Campaign at its café on 415 E. Ohio Street on the City's North Side. Designed by Amelia Williams, the "Ring of Hope" is part of this artist's unique jewelry art to help support domestic violence awareness.

Representatives from several local organizations—including Light of Life Rescue Mission—that empower domestic violence victims will be on site at Bistro To Go to interact with guests, accept donations and display educational materials about their organizations.

Jewelry Art by Amelia will donate a portion of proceeds per ring to qualified charities that support awareness of domestic violence. All patrons of Bistro To Go and the public are welcome to preview the rings and place their custom orders.

"I created and designed this beautiful "Ring of Hope" to help support domestic violence awareness. Its symbolism is shared by those who have been affected by domestic violence," said Ms. Williams, who is a domestic violence survivor. The hand wrapped wire on the "Ring of Hope" represents the chaotic life of a Domestic Violence victim; the crystal ring represent the "hope" victims can hold from within to break free of this destructive cycle; the round crystal symbolizes the victim who has risen above the chaos, straightened out their life (shown by the straight wire placed through the crystal), become a survivor, and now is a shining transformation for all to see. Wire choices are available in 14K gold-filled, sterling silver or non-tarnish brass.

Other participants for this event are Womansplace in McKeesport and the Women's Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh.
